

UVA Health Arts Program

Call for submissions: The University of Virginia Health System Arts Committee is seeking entries for its rotating art exhibit in the Lobby of the University of Virginia Hospital. The rotating exhibit features original artwork by Virginia artists that is conducive to a healing environment. Wall art in oil, acrylic, pastels, or mixed media will be considered as will photography. Fiber and textile art will not be considered.

The Arts Committee will pre-screen initial submissions and selected artists will be notified and asked to bring in a limited number of original works for final jurying.

Interested artists are asked to send a brief bio and flash drive of digital images in jpeg format with six to ten examples of artwork. Each example must be identified by title, size, and medium.

Artwork must meet the following criteria:

- Subject matter must be positive, uplifting or calming and suitable for viewing by all ages.
- Violent, graphic, or otherwise unsettling images are not appropriate in a healing environment.
- Nudity is not permitted.
- Religious symbols are not permitted.

The call for submission will begin May30 and will run through the close of business on July 30, 2021.

Please send flash drive along with a short bio via mail no emails please to:
