Each year, UVA's chapter of the Student National Medical Association (SNMA) works with Charlottesville's City of Promise to sponsor a toy drive for the children of the Westhaven community. The kids create their holiday wish lists, and through the generous donations from UVA students, faculty, and staff, we collect gift cards to give to families to make those lists come true! SNMA in collaboration with the UVA Health Office of Diversity and Community Engagement is expanding this year to allow more community members the opportunity to purchase the things they want for themselves and for their children.
